Grammar Corner

What's Where

Read the following sentences.

The book is on the table.

Where is the book? On the table.

The cat is under the chair.

Where is the cat? Under the chair.

The words in red are called prepositions.

They always come before a noun.

Prepositions usually tell us where someone or something is.

Words like in, on, under, behind, above, below and beside tell us where something or someone is. They are prepositions of place.

E1. Circle the prepositions in the following sentences.

1. The students are sitting in the classroom.
